We Choose A Place

Where We Can Learn

To Realize Our Goals

And Enter That Place

With The Determination

To Succeed.

Pulling Together

Our Resources,

We Go Forth

With The Knowledge

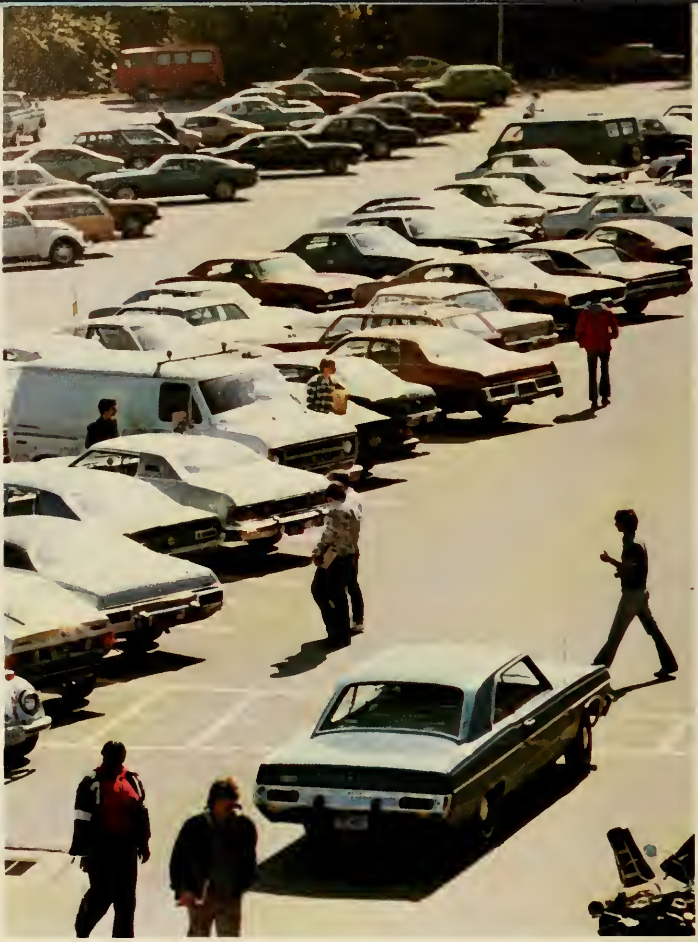
We Have Gathered . . .

To Design

And To Build

Our World

And To Follow A Path . . .



So That When We

Leave A Place,

We Move On

To Complete Our Goals

I would like to take this opportunity to thank those people without whom there would not have been a yearbook:

Al Cronk — without your photos there would not be a book.
Thank you for all your hard work and cooperation.
Marion Garnitz — For your efforts to organize the office (nice try!), thank you.
Rik Godfrey — Thanks for your help.
To all the photographers — well done!
Also, thank you to the Athletic Department for their information, Joe Macionus, the Registrar's Office, and Public Relations Office and Personnel.

And the first shall be last . . . Thank you, thank you, thank you, Brian Hawthorne. As yearbook representative you went beyond what I expected or could have hoped for. For you, it cannot be said too often, THANK YOU.
